Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCarroll are rejoicing over the birth of a fine boy, which first saw the light of day at the home of Mrs. McCarroll's parents at Williston a few days ago. The happy "dad" has not yet seen the youngster, as he is now in New Orleans. It is safe enough to say, however, that he is walking with more dignity than usual, and the proverbial peacock would not be in it when it comes to proudest. Friends extend congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Abrams of Jacksonville are on a brief visit to relatives in this city. They spent the day yesterday as guests of N. A. Callison at Spring Park Farm. Mr. Abrams, who was for several years engaged in the musical merchandise business here, moved to Jacksonville, when he enlarged and extended his territory. He has now one of the handsomest and most modern stores of its kind not in Florida, but in the South, and his friends will be glad to learn that he is prospering. Mr. Abrams' friends were about to place him in the line of old babies until a few days ago, when he could no longer stand the "proposition" and took unto himself a wife. His friends join in the most hearty congratulations in his good fortune.

STEVENS, Ala., June 6, 1901.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis: Dear Sir—I have been a great sufferer from bladder trouble for two years and my case was of a very severe nature, compelling me to have several painful and dangerous operations. I have also taken many different remedies. I took Swamp Root for three years and Warner's Safe Cure two years and they only gave temporary relief. After having two operations and preparing for the third, I saw your Texas Wonder advertised and purchased a bottle. I got almost immediate relief and have continued to improve ever since. My doctor said my bladder had grown together in three places, and I was suffering almost death. No man living can say more than I can for your Texas Wonder, and I call it a world's wonder, and I hope all who suffer will give it a trial. Wishing you success, I am Yours truly,

W. C. DANIEL.

There are some people who are mighty careless about throwing old truck into the alleyways. Such people should be taught a little elvish pride by a modest fine. It is impossible for the authorities to keep places clean if people will persist in such practices.

Mrs. B. N. Smith, who resided at Newberry, this county, for some time, is now with her husband at Nashville, Ga. In renewing her subscription to The Sun she expresses great interest in the local occurrences of this section, and says she does not want to miss a single copy of the paper.

The elder Mrs. Kennard was painfully injured Monday by falling on the sidewalk between O'Neill's and Barkham's stores on the East Side. She was carried into the latter store, where she received medical attention. The sidewalk has a fall of about a foot at this place, and it is strange that many people are not injured there.

Rev. Dr. J. P. DePass, pastor of the Methodist church at Arcadia, made an agreeable call at The Sun office yesterday. Dr. DePass was in charge of the Methodist church here when the editor of this paper was a boy, and the writer can vouch for the fact that he did much to build up the church in this city. The pastor was only paid about three hundred dollars in those days but he labored with the same zeal as if he were receiving three thousand. Dr. DePass is delighted with Arcadia and refers to the country as "the Garden of the Gods." TO THE TRUSTEES OF
St. Johns Methodist Church

Gentlemen:—Don't allow your church to pay 8 cents per pound for wood.

If they buy 100 pounds of White Lead in kegs they get 88 pounds of White Lead and 12 pounds of wood; but when they buy L. & M. Paint they get a full gallon of paint that won't wear off for 10 or 15 years, because L. & M. Zinc hardens L. & M. White Lead and makes L. & M. Paint wear like iron.

4 gallons L. & M. mixed with 3 gallons Linseed Oil will paint an moderate sized house.

Actual cost of L. & M. about $1.20 per gallon.

C. S. Andrews, Ex-Mayor of Danbury, Conn., writes:

"Painted my house 19 years ago with L. & M. [Looks well today.] Sold by J. C. Bishop, Alachua, Fla."
